

state of europe FORUM 2023

MAY 5 & 6 STOCKHOLM

CONTRIBUTORS

Dr Mari Blaj (RO) directs activities

Julia Doxat-Purser (GB)

Dr Per Ewert (SE) leads the Clapham

Dr Ján Figel' (SK)

Jeff Fountain (NL/NZ) directs the

Dr John Hess (PL)

Maksym Kiyak (UA) coordinates

Tunne Kelam (EE) co-founded

Martina Köninger (DE) co-leads

Ineta Lansdowne (LV)

Andreas Nordli (NO) coordinates

Ruth Nordström (SE)

Mikael Oscarsson* (SE) has served

Jacob Rudenstrand (SE)

Dr Stefan Swärd (SE) is a Swedish

Therese Swinthers (BE) convenes

Dr Henrik Syse (NO) is professor

Dr Evert Van de Poll (FR) is a retired

Dr Andrej Zubov (RU) lost his chair

the price of FREEDOM & PEACE

S:TA CLARA KYRKA &
BETLEHEMSKYRKAN

THE SWEDISH
EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE

An international team of experienced experts and practitioners from a wide range of Christian backgrounds and disciplines will bring to the forum (some via video) perspectives on challenges to and opportunities for freedom and peace in Europe today.

of the Schuman Centre in Iasi, Romania. She earned her doctorate cum laude on René Girard's mimetic theory.

is the European Evangelical Alliance's socio-political & religious liberty representative and lives in Bournemouth, England.

Institute in Stockholm and earned his doctorate on the secularisation of Sweden.

was the EU Special Envoy for promotion of freedom of religion 2016-19, and lives in Slovakia.

Schuman Centre for European Studies and lives with his wife Romkje in Amsterdam.

completed his PhD dissertation on Michael Polany and his political relevance today, and lives with his wife Helen in Krakow.

foreign policy international security at ANTS - Network for National Interests Protection in Ukraine the first non-Communist political party in the Soviet Union and served as an MEP for Estonia 2004-19.

the European Disability Network and initiated the evacuation of disabled Ukrainians after the Russian invasion.

earned her masters in Theology and World Religions at the University of Latvia and works at the Occupation Museum in Riga.

the YWAM Nordic region and lives with his family in Grimerud, near Lillehamer is a Scandinavian Human Rights lawyer based in Uppsala promoting human rights and freedoms for persecuted minorities.

as a Swedish MP since 1998 championing family and human rights issues, and is president of the Holocaust memorial association.

is deputy general secretary of the Swedish Evangelical Alliance, and has a background in journalism and politics.

pastor, author, social commentator and political scientist who earned his doctorate in political science on how Sweden gained free abortion.

the European Disability Network promoting and supporting evangelistic ministry among and by people with disabilities.

at the Peace Research Institute of Oslo and was vice-chair of the Nobel Peace Prize Committee.

but active theology professor and senior researcher with the Schuman Centre, living with his wife Janna in Nîmes, France.

as professor of history in Moscow after criticising the occupation of Crimea. He now lectures in Chechia.

